The Courage to Speak Foundation, Inc. was founded by Ginger and Larry Katz in an effort to foster open communication between teens and parents so that they may keep their children safe and make healthy decisions. Since 1996, Ginger and Larry have shared their story and insights with hundreds of thousands of parents and students across the country.

Ginger and Larry will discuss:

- Effective communication between parent & child
 - Helping teens handle stress, anger & other emotions
 - Helping teens make good decisions
 - The code of silence and its dangers
 - Appropriate expectations, boundaries & follow-up
 - Cultural influence & the teen party scene
