Courageous Parenting 101[®]

UNDERSTANDING SUBSTANCE ABUSE AND ITS IMPACT ON CHILDREN AND YOUTH

Courage to Speak-Courageous Parenting 101[®] is a free, four-session substance abuse education and prevention program developed by The Courage to Speak Foundation, Inc., a nonprofit 501(c)(3) to help parents like you understand substance abuse and its impact on children and youth. The program will be taught by a trained Courage to Speak[®] facilitator certified by The Courage to Speak[®] Foundation, Inc. and will cover a variety of materials, such as fundamentals of substance abuse prevention, drug trends in America, signs of drug use, communication skills, how to find out if your child is using drugs, what to do if your child is using drugs, how to access help, MTV, MySpace, FaceBook, and other timely and relevant material. The course is offered at Guilford High School, 605 New England Road, Guilford CT and begins Thursday, April 28th at 6:30 pm with session one. Sessions two, three and four will continue each week on Thursday May 5th, 12th and 19th.

You will gain the tools and knowledge required to communicate more effectively with your children on substance abuse issues. It is expected that participating parents will demonstrate an active role in supporting children's decisions to not use tobacco, alcohol, and other drugs. You will also develop improved listening and communication skills, which have been shown to be a critical factor in the prevention of substance abuse by young people. Courage to Speak-Courageous Parenting 101[®] is open to parents in all communities with children in Elementary, Middle and High School free of charge.
