Dear Mrs Katz,

I thought that Sunny's Story was very encouraging to young kids like me because now this makes me feel so much safer about knowing what path to take as each year passes by. Sunny would always stand up for his best friend, Ian. He would never let him down.

His story impacted my life because I know now never ever to go near any type of drug, even when I'm in Middle or High School, and somebody might be throwing a party and trying to sell drugs. Everyone needs the courage to speak up because if you don't, heartbreaking things can happen to anyone, anytime or anywhere.

Sincerely,
Olivia
