Courageous Parenting 101[®]

UNDERSTANDING SUBSTANCE ABUSE AND ITS IMPACT ON CHILDREN AND YOUTH

Courageous Parenting 101[™] is a free, five-session substance abuse education and prevention program developed by The Courage to Speak Foundation, Inc., a nonprofit 501(c)(3) to help parents like you understand substance abuse and its impact on children and youth. The program will be offered by a facilitator certified by The Courage to Speak Foundation, Inc. and will cover a variety of materials, such as fundamentals of substance abuse prevention, drug trends in America, signs of drug use, communication skills, how to find out if your child is using drugs, what to do if your child is using drugs, how to access help, MTV, MySpace, FaceBook, and other timely and relevant material. The course is offered at Roton Middle School, 221 Highland Avenue, Norwalk, CT and begins Monday, October 19, 2009 @ 6:30 pm with the Courage to Speak Presentation and first session and continues every consecutive Monday, November 2, 9, and 16, 2009 from 6:30 pm to 8:30 pm. Oct 19 will be extended a half-hour due to the Courage to Speak presentation.

You will gain the tools and knowledge required to communicate more effectively with your children on substance abuse issues. It is expected that participating parents will demonstrate an active role in supporting children's decisions to not use tobacco, alcohol, and other drugs. You will also develop improved listening and communication skills, which have been shown to be a critical factor in the prevention of substance abuse by young people. Courageous Parenting 101[™] is open to parents in all communities free of charge.
